

WISCONSIN'S FOREST PRODUCTS INDUSTRY ECONOMIC CONTRIBUTIONS

$37.8 BILLION

TOTAL ECONOMIC CONTRIBUTIONS

Wisconsin's forest products industry is one of the leading manufacturing sectors, representing over 11% of the state's total manufacturing jobs. The industry's contributions are recognized nationally, ranking sixth in generating forestry employment and second in value of production.

Total Economic Contributions

123K+ jobs tied to forest products industry

$15.4 billion to state gross domestic products

$2.9 billion in total tax contribution

$1.6 billion of forestry commodities exported to foreign countries

Top forest products industry contributing to Wisconsin's GDP (Direct Contribution)

Paper Manufacturing
$1.8 billion

Sanitary Product Manufacturing
$1.3 billion

Paperboard Container Manufacturing
$940 million

Paper Bag And Coated And Treated Paper Manufacturing
$860 million

Wood Windows And Door Manufacturing
$520 million

Reconstituted Wood Product Manufacturing
$280 million

Sawmills
$250 million

Source: Economic Contribution Of The Forest Products Industry To Wisconsin's Economy, 2024 (Based On 2021 IMPLAN Data)

